

Supervision is a safe space for reflective dialogue with a practicing supervisor, supporting the supervisee's practice, development, and well-being.

(European Mentoring and Coaching Council definition)

How Coaches Benefit from Supervision

Partnering with a supervisor, either 1:1 or in a group, is increasingly being seen as necessary by coaches and organizations to support any coaching engagement be it 1:1, team, or group. Supervision offers us the guidance so that we may:

- Be more self-aware and present in our coaching sessions.
- Develop a deeper understanding of our clients.
- Show up as our “best coaching selves,” in all situations.
- Be more aware of systemic influences on our clients.

In addition to Open Supervision Groups, Mindful Leadership's global team of coaching supervisors offers an array supervision options to meet the needs of a coach's professional practice, such as 1:1 and small group supervision for projects and for longer-term support.

ABOUT

Co-Facilitated *Open Group of up to 10 professional coaches that meets for two hours of reflective dialogue on coaching cases and coaching themes

ICF credential holders may submit up to 10 hours of coaching supervision as core competency credits toward their credential renewal

SUMMER EVENT DATES

(Click a date to register for an event)

June 15, 1pm - 3pm ET

August 4, 1pm - 3pm ET

September 13, 1pm - 3pm ET

COST

$75 per session

OPEN TO COACHES

- ACC certification and above, with 3 years of coaching experience
- Internal and external coaches

* An “Open” Group is one where any coach that meets the group criteria can attend any single session as often as they like without a longer-term commitment.

Event Co-Supervisors

Ken Giglio

Principal Mindful Leadership Consulting

Ken Giglio is Principal of Mindful Leadership Consulting, a global leadership consulting and executive coaching firm. Ken is a Master Corporate Executive Coach and an accredited Coach Supervisor with the Coaching Supervision Academy. He is also a member of CSA's International Faculty, contributing as a presenter, mentor, and supervisor for CSA North America program.

Lynne De Lay

International Coach Supervisor & Executive Coach

Lynne De Lay is known as a coach's coach. Her career as an OD consultant, trainer, leadership coach, mentor, and coaching supervisor spans over twenty-five years and three continents. She is a board certified coach and a credentialed coach with ICF with a post-graduate diploma in Coaching Supervision from the Coaching Supervision Academy (CSA), London, and a member of the Association of Coaching Supervisors.